FREELANCE SAGA: EPISODE 6 BY SCOTTIE FUTCH PDF

The world of Alterra is a place of mystery, of wonder, of beautiful monster girls who get what they want. In Episode 6, Scott and his crew develop their relationships further, and have to deal with the realities of travel in the fantasy world at large. Can a man and his harem of beautiful monster girls make a place for themselves in the world? Episode 6 begins to first major story arc, the road to Darcheilme.

Freelance Saga is part of a group of stories known as 'Project Scott'. These stories feature main protagonists that have the same first name, but who can vary somewhat in their backstory. Some are more similar than others, and many use compatible themes to give the impression of different dimensional analogs of the same soul. Each story can be seen as an alternate universe story with a similar main character.

Much better than Origin A.R.S

By Frank Drebin

I love these books. Normally I don't go for erotica and all that but when I saw that he was a demi-human summoner I had to go for it and I don't regret it. The idea of a protagonist who isn't all that dangerous on his own but bestows incredibly powerful perks on his party and allows for unbelievable levels of coordination is such an underused but awesome idea. Nothing really new gets introduced in this book but considering the length that's no surprise. On that note these are entirely too short. Just when things start to get good, lolbooksdonesorry. That would be the only issue with these I'd say. It's pretty much impossible to dislike any of the characters despite their INCREDIBLE libidos thanks to the fact that they're remarkably well written and complex even though the book is half erotica half litrpg. As for Scott himself, well unlike most protagonists he's intelligent, witty and isn't prone to fits of uncontrollable assholery as is the norm these days for whatever reason. To Mr. Futch, please sir, make the next book longer, and in my personal opinion this series is far better than Origin ARS and you should totally disregard that one and focus on this one. In all seriousness please make the next one longer.

Repetitive sex -- blah...

By larry

I'll synopsise the 6 episodes (to date) rather than wasting my time (and yours)...

In general, the writing style is okay -- easy to read and relatively engaging at times. Unfortunately, there are far too many typos, especially for the minimal lengths of each episode.

Episode length -- plenty of comments saying they're "too short". Truth -- the episodes aren't long enough to develop the story.

Author -- give yourself a chance. Extend your episodes to 100+ pages, perhaps charge $1.99 -- novella length, enough room to develop a sub-plot or two.

Sex -- too much, too repetitive. "50 Shades of Grey" with perhaps a sheep, goat, and horse thrown in does it much better. It's entirely "washed over" the story -- in some episodes, there's nothing else. It's also a bit too much "Internet Porno", about as "not real" as it gets...

Get back to the story, and treat "sex" as the sideline it is. Use it to enhance, not overwhelm...

Story -- started out okay, got washed out by the B.S. Lot's of "2 star-minus" episodes.

The Main Character should be intent on raising his Stats, developing firmer goals, and obtaining/developing his "harem". I'd think that each of his harem members has a "Skill Tree" , yet I've read little or nothing about them.

This storyline is one of two in the author's "Universe". The concepts are interesting, but the execution, to-this-point, has been questionable. It's time to set the porno/beastiality "kink" aside, and fill out the story.

If this were "a book", then the conclusion of the first book should be at the "Beta Test" conclusion point. That point is drawing near, yet there's been little beyond obtaining sex partners. If you (the author) wants readers, give them something to actually read being boring, repetitive sex...

Way too short...

By Oneiron

I'm giving this book only 3 stars because it's so very very short. I really love the Freelance Saga, but considering the time between each book and how extremely short they are I can't give it the 4 - 5 stars it otherwise deserves. I would recommend to anyone thinking of starting this series to wait until it's done before buying. It's very aggravating when you have such a potentially great series, but you have to wait such a long time for such extremely short installments.
