MICHAELA (ESSAYS) BY GABRIELLA BURMAN PDF

Michaela tells the tragic story of a mother devastated by the loss of her young child, and does so with strength and clarity. The author never lets her readers forget the overwhelming loss that has shaped her, that continues to shape her, and she doesn't let herself get away with any fatuous platitudes or easy answers. We are left with the example of endurance, and endurance assumes its own rough nobility. — Keith Taylor

Wonderous! A must read!!

By JanR

Gabriella Burman's writing is exquisitely beautiful. I read "Michaela" more slowly than any other book I've ever read, savoring every word, description, and emotion. A truly outstanding work by a very talented writer.

Powerful Essays -- Five Stars

By Ksenia

Gabriella Burman's writing strikes you to the very core – it's honest, heartbreaking and passionate at the same time. Her sorrow touches the reader intimately because at its heart this is a story of love and what happens when the person Burman loves so dearly – her beautiful young daughter Michaela – dies unexpectedly. There is so much to admire and learn from Burman's essays. Life deals inexplicable losses every day and the death of a child is the very worst of losses. Burman pulls no punches when writing about the impact of her child's loss on every aspect of her and her family's lives, but in the midst of overwhelming grief, the message she sends is one of resilience. In the beginning, she must go on for the sake of her other daughters if nothing else. By writing this book, Burman's other daughters get to know the sister they lost all too soon. In my case, these essays gave me insight about what my own grandmother endured when she lost three of her five children – two as toddlers. I found myself thinking more and more about her as I read the essays. This is a touching and powerful book of essays – highly recommended for all.

Michaela (Essays) - Gabriella Burman

By Amazon Customer

Gabriella Burman's collection of essays entitled Michaela describe the devastation and heartbreak that came along with the sudden death of her oldest child. Her unique way of writing and conveying her story capture the life of her daughter and allow her memory to forever live on. Burman's choice of essays in her book all include the struggling and rewarding aspects that she and her family experienced while caring for a child with special needs. Even though her writing is dedicated to her late daughter, the reader gets a deeper look on Burman's life as a whole. The perspective that Burman gives her readers during this time in her life reflects the intense love that she has for her family as well as her take on just how truly precious the gift of life is.
