Thrilling Fae Story -Impossible to Put Down!

By LilMissMolly

I absolutely loved the Underground Trilogy by Anna Kyss. It's a series about the fae and could be viewed as a type of origins story for the vampire myth. In a nutshell, the story involves an American student traveling abroad in London who meets twin brothers who were raised apart, one with each parent. One brother is considered light and the other dark and they must join forces if they are to cure the fae of the illness plaguing them for centuries.

Meghan Lewis did an outstanding job narrating all three audiobooks and they were impossible to put down! She really brings all of the characters to life giving each one their own distinct voice, both male and female. She also has a rhythm to her reading that is melodious, giving it a fairytale quality. In summary, Anna Kyss and Meghan Lewis together are the perfect pairing for hours of thoroughly enjoyable entertainment.

One of my favorite fantasy series. I found this series by being asked to review the first book's audio (which is a must listen if you like audio) the author does an amazing job of creating this world of fantasy right alongside the real world. If you are a fan of fantasy this is a great series for you. I love this series so much I keep it on my iPhone's kindle app so I can reread whenever the mood strikes me
